

Sabrina S. Mosby
President & CEO
Vibrant Pittsburgh

Sabrina Saunders Mosby currently serves as President and Chief Executive Officer for Vibrant Pittsburgh, a premier economic development organization working to attract, retain, and elevate a diverse regional workforce.

Sabrina has a broad background of executive leadership experience with a variety of nonprofit organizations, and government offices at the local and federal level. She is deeply involved in public service, as well as political and community organizations, serving on numerous nonprofit boards and in a variety of leadership roles.

Sabrina is an alumnus of Leadership Pittsburgh's LDI XVII, was named the inaugural Young Professional of the Year by the NAACP–Pittsburgh Unit, received the NSI Community Spirit Award for her selfless commitment to the greater Pittsburgh community and was named a finalist for the Pittsburgh Young Athena Award.
