

Glennis Williams
VP & Chief Human Resources Officer
MSA Safety

Glennis Williams joined MSA Safety as VP & Chief Human Resource Officer in February 2020. In her first year at MSA, Ms. Williams has been focused on helping the organization navigate the challenges and leverage opportunities that the COVID pandemic has presented while continuing to maintain focus and momentum around strategic talent initiatives, such as Diversity & Inclusion and optimizing the HR strategy to drive greater value for the organization.

Ms. Williams has more than 20 years of international HR experience with several industrial companies operating across diverse industries. Prior to joining MSA Safety, Ms. Williams held the position of SVP & Chief Human Resource Officer for Hillenbrand, where she led efforts to transform HR to a driver of strategic talent and business outcomes, with a primary focus on aligning the company's people strategies with Hillenbrand's long-term organizational goals.

Prior to Hillenbrand, Ms. Williams served as Vice Present of Global Human Resources for Welbilt, Inc., where she spearheaded the development of a diversity and inclusion framework fully aligned with the company's organizational goals. Before Welbilt, she spent three years with Komatsu (formerly Joy Global) as Vice President of Human Resources, and ten years with Westinghouse Electric Co. where she held several roles of increasing responsibility.

Ms. Williams earned her bachelor's degree from Idaho State University and her MBA from the University of Phoenix. She also holds certifications as a Six Sigma Black Belt, Senior Professional in HR, and Global HR professional.
